Christmas Eve is

Boxing Day is

MONEY, DECIDED NOW — A number written down is spent slower

Gifts Food & drink

Travel Everything else

All of it, and not a penny more

WHO DOES WHAT — Christmas is not one person's job

THE JOB WHOSE

Presents

Food shopping

Cooking on the day

Cards and post

Washing up

What we are not doing this year

Fill this in before anything else. Christmas gets heavy because everything from every previous year is still on the list. Name three things you are dropping — a card to everyone, a second pudding, the drive on the day — and the rest of this kit gets easier.

THE ONE THING THAT HAS TO BE RIGHT

BOOKED, ORDERED, PAID FOR — Anything with a date on it

TRADITIONS WORTH KEEPING

December, day by day.

The posting dates are the real deadline

Cards and parcels are the one part of Christmas that cannot be done late. Find this year's last posting dates in the first week of December, write them above, and work back from them – not from the twenty-fifth.

ORDERED, NOT BOUGHT

Turkey, ham, a cake, a case of wine

THE TREE

Bought on Up on

- ☐ Lights tested before they go on
- ☐ Water it – a real tree drinks daily
- ☐ Nothing breakable at toddler or dog height

THE THINGS THAT GO MISSING EVERY YEAR

- ☐ The stockings
- ☐ Spare bulbs and fuses for the lights
- ☐ The good tablecloth and the napkins
- ☐ Crackers, and somewhere to hide them
- ☐ The tree stand

8/9

Only the things that need a time

WHO IS ON IT

Write the time next to each

- 1 Awake, and the first cup of tea
Before the first present, not after
- 2 Presents
Slower than anyone wants; someone collects the paper
- 3 Breakfast that is not the lunch
Otherwise nobody eats until four
- 4 Kitchen closes to visitors
One cook, one helper, everyone else out
- 5 Lunch
The time from page 6, said out loud the night before
- 6 The walk, or the quiet hour
The part people remember
- 7 Calls to whoever is not here
Put a time on it or it slips
- 8 Games, film, leftovers
Nothing more is cooked today

The week after.

Buy next year's Christmas this week

Cards, paper, crackers, lights and decorations are half price from the twenty-seventh. Buy them now, put them in one labelled box with the decorations, and write on the lid what is inside. It is the cheapest hour you will spend on next Christmas.
