NOTES

FOUR WEEKS TO THE NIGHT.

FOUR WEEKS OUT

- ☐ Set the date, the budget and the scare level
- ☐ Send the invitations – costumes need notice
- ☐ Order or start making costumes
- ☐ Book anything that gets booked out in October
- ☐ Decide: party, trick-or-treat, or both
- ☐
- ☐

ONE WEEK OUT

- ☐ Chase the guests who have not replied
- ☐ Buy pumpkins – not earlier, they collapse
- ☐ Batteries, tea lights, LED candles
- ☐ Print the playlist and the games
- ☐ Clear a room for coats and one for quiet
- ☐
- ☐

31 OCTOBER

- ☐ Food out late, so it is not warm and sad
- ☐ Porch light on means sweets, off means done
- ☐ Photos before the make-up melts
- ☐

TWO WEEKS OUT

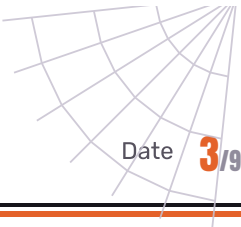

- ☐ Buy decorations before the good ones go
- ☐ Plan the menu and the drinks
- ☐ Buy the sweets – and hide them from yourself
- ☐ Test the lights, the fog machine, the speaker
- ☐ Ask about allergies on the RSVP
- ☐
- ☐

THE NIGHT BEFORE

- ☐ Carve the pumpkins
- ☐ Chill the drinks, make ice
- ☐ Hang everything that is not food
- ☐ Charge the camera and the speaker
- ☐ Lay out costumes and the make-up
- ☐
- ☐

- ☐ Light the pumpkins at dusk
- ☐ One person on the door, one on the camera
- ☐

Two things to get right

Dry ice goes in the bowl around the punch, never in the drink, and never in a sealed bottle. And if there are children, keep an alcohol-free punch that looks just as good — on a night of identical black cups, that matters.

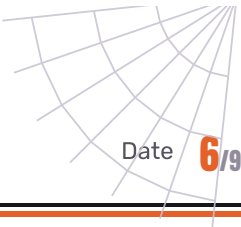

ALLERGIES ————— Copy them from the guest list

Before anyone arrives

Real candles go where nobody walks and nothing hangs – LED tea lights everywhere else, especially inside pumpkins and near costumes. Check that the stairs and the path are lit even if the rest is dark, and put the breakables away rather than around.

Buy on _____ Carve on _____

Carved pumpkins last about three days indoors and about five outside in the cold. Carving on the 28th is early. Carving on the 30th is right.

IF NOBODY WANTS A KNIFE NEAR IT

- ☐ Painted instead of cut – lasts a fortnight
- ☐ Drilled dots, a light behind them
- ☐ Three stacked, tallest at the back

- ☐ Serrated knife or a carving saw
- ☐ Big spoon or scoop
- ☐ Marker for drawing the face on first
- ☐ Newspaper, and a bin bag ready
- ☐ LED tea lights, not real ones
- ☐ _____
- ☐ _____

THE INSIDES

Nobody plans this and everybody regrets it

- ☐ Seeds kept, rinsed and roasted
- ☐ The rest into the garden or the food waste

WHAT HAPPENS

WHO IS ON IT

Write the time next to each

- 1 Set up finished
Nothing left to hang after the first guest
- 2 Doors, drinks, photographs
The costumes are freshest now
- 3 Food out
Later than feels right
- 4 Games, or the contest
One thing, well timed
- 5 Prizes announced
Before anyone starts leaving
- 6 Music up, lights lower
The party either lifts here or ends here
- 7 Last drinks, taxis, coats
Say the time out loud

- ☐ Porch light on, bowl filled, path lit
- ☐ Someone at home while the others walk
- ☐ Torch, phone, and a bag that will not split
- ☐ Route agreed, and the time you turn back

Check the sweets before the small ones eat them

- ☐

THE FIRST OF NOVEMBER.

WHAT WORKED – Write it now; next October you will not remember

WHAT TO DO DIFFERENTLY

THE COSTUMES: KEEP, MEND OR PASS ON

Today, not next year

Decorations, costumes and sweets are half price from today. Buy next year’s this afternoon, put it in one labelled box, and write on the lid what is inside. It is the single cheapest thing on this page.
