

Start here.

Nine pages that use tools people have found helpful for years: a worry window, a thought record, a log of what you feared against what actually happened, and a plan written while you are calm.

1 WHAT IS IN YOUR DOWNLOAD

4 fillable sets

4 print sets

This guide

Letter + A4 · colour + ink-saving mono · 9 pages each

the same pages without form fields

pages 6 and 9 are filled in once, on a calm day

how to use it, print it, and what it is not

2 WHERE TO START

Page 1 for a week, and nothing else. When worries take over the day, add page 2 and give them a set time. Page 4 is the one that pays off slowly — write what you expect to happen, then come back later and write what did. After a few weeks that page is evidence in your own handwriting.

3 TYPE ON IT OR PRINT IT

Open a -fillable.pdf in Adobe Acrobat Reader (free) or a tablet app and type, or print the -print.pdf and use a pen. Writing by hand is slower, which on these pages is the point.

4 PRINT IT WELL

- Paper: plain A4 or US Letter, 90–120 gsm
- Scale: 100% / Actual size — never “Fit to page”
- Print several copies of pages 1, 3 and 4 at once
- Saving ink? The mono set is the same layout with no colour

5 WHAT THIS IS NOT

This is a journal and planner. It is not therapy, treatment, diagnosis or medical advice, and it is not a substitute for support from a doctor or therapist. If anxiety is making daily life hard, talking to a professional is worth it and this set works well alongside that. Fill in the crisis line on page 9 today, while you are calm. If you are in danger or thinking about harming yourself, contact your local emergency number or a crisis line now.
