Nine pages built on predictability instead of motivation. Every page has the same layout, the same three colours, and plain language with no idioms.

1 WHAT IS IN YOUR DOWNLOAD

4 fillable sets	Letter + A4 · colour + ink-saving mono · 9 pages each
4 print sets	the same pages without form fields
Page 1 is the daily	print that one often; page 3 is for the days a plan changes
This guide	how to use it, print it, and what it is not

2 HOW TO USE IT

Start with page 1 only. Fill in the order of the day in the morning, or the night before if mornings are hard. Page 3 is the one to reach for when something changes — it writes down what changed and, more importantly, what stays the same. Pages 4, 5, 6 and 8 are filled in once on a calm day and used later; they are not daily work.

3 TYPE ON IT OR PRINT IT

Open a -fillable.pdf in Adobe Acrobat Reader (free) or a tablet app and type; or print the -print.pdf and use a pen. Some people fill pages 4 to 8 on the computer once, print those, and keep only page 1 as a daily print.

4 PRINT IT WELL

- Paper: plain A4 or US Letter, 90–120 gsm
- Scale: 100% / Actual size — never “Fit to page”
- The mono set has no colour at all, if colour is distracting
- Print several copies of page 1 and page 3 at the same time

5 WHAT THIS IS NOT

This is a planning tool. It is not medical advice, therapy, an assessment, or a substitute for support from people who know you. It was made using ideas that autistic people widely describe as helpful — predictable structure, plain language, sensory planning, written scripts — but every autistic person is different. Use the pages that help. Ignore the pages that do not. Cross out any wording that is wrong for you and write your own.
